

Indeed - Marketing | 5 Indeed Job Search Tips

So, you know how to search for jobs online. What you might not know is that there are ways to make it even easier. These search hacks can help you find exactly what you're looking for on Indeed.

The first step is a hard one. Close all the memes and cat videos. Then, in Indeed's What search box, search for a specific job title in quotation marks. You don't want the search engine to surface jobs with only one of the words. Take it a step further by specifying the company you want to work at, and words you want to exclude from the search.

Now, what if you've got an ideal salary or even a distance from home in mind? Or maybe you're part time? Advanced Job Search is here to help.

Hey, pumpernickel bagel?

Oh, in a minute, Fred. Where was I? If you feel like taking a break, you can save your searches and set up job alerts. You'll be among the first to hear about a new job, and your application is more likely to be seen by an employer if you apply right after the job is posted. Neat, eh?

Well, I think that's everything. Remember that the smallest moves are sometimes the smartest. Like and subscribe for more tips.
